November Brings Art, Music, Dance, and the Traditional Christmas Tree Lighting to Buenavista Station on the Tren Suburbano

Mexico City, November 3, 2026 – Throughout November, Buenavista Station of the Tren Suburbano will host a diverse cultural program featuring music, dance, workshops, recreational activities, and the traditional Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony, with the aim of bringing art, culture, and entertainment closer to commuters, visitors, and local residents through a variety of family-friendly experiences.

At the Tren Suburbano Cultural Center, activities will begin on Thursday, November 5, with a Versatile Music Performance, followed by an Acoustic Concert on Friday, November 6. Tribute Performances will take place on Thursday, November 12, and a High Energy Music Show on Friday, November 13. Dance enthusiasts can enjoy performances by Tlatoani Folkloric Dance Group on Wednesday, November 11, and Wednesday, November 18. On Thursday, November 19, the spotlight will be on Opera, followed by another Versatile Music Performance on Friday, November 20. All these activities will begin at 3:30 p.m.

The month's musical program will conclude with performances by the Orquesta Sinfónica de Alientos de la Alcaldía Cuauhtémoc on Thursday, November 26, and the SEDENA Concert on Friday, November 27, both starting at 5:00 p.m.

For those seeking additional experiences, Screen Printing Workshops will be held on Thursday, November 12, and Thursday, November 26. Chess tournaments and classes will take place on Friday, November 20, and Friday, November 27, while the Speedcubing Tournament will also be part of the program, all beginning at 10:00 a.m. Additionally, on Wednesday, November 25, at 5:00 p.m., Christian Orozco will lead a Brain Gymnastics session.

Visitors may also enjoy the photographic exhibition "La Muerte viste a la Moda (Death Dresses in Fashion)", whose author, Juan Manuel Avila, describes it as "a meeting point between culture and innovation that transforms death into art and fashion into a unique visual experience." The exhibition will remain on display through November 23.

Finally, on the Explanada de la Estación Buenavista del Tren Suburbano, the traditional Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony will take place on Saturday, November 28, beginning at 3:00 p.m. The celebration will start with Santa arrival, followed by live performances from Sonido Los Jrs, Banda Dinastía Real, and Grupo La Flecha. Filled with music, entertainment, and a family-friendly atmosphere, this event will conclude the month with one of the season's most anticipated celebrations.

All activities are free of charge and subject to change without prior notice. For more information about the monthly schedule, the public is invited to visit the official Tren Suburbano social media channels, the Mi Suburbano app, or the website: www.fsuburbanos.com
