

October: Music, Art, and New Experiences at the Tren Suburbano Cultural Center

Mexico City, October 1, 2026. – From an exhibition dedicated to chocolate to rock and roll, opera, romantic music, and activities designed to stimulate creativity and keep the mind active, the Tren Suburbano Cultural Center, located at Buenavista Station, has prepared a free program throughout October for neighbors, passengers, and visitors.

Music will take center stage for much of the month's agenda. Versatile Music will kick off the activities on Thursday, October 1, followed by an Acoustic Concert on Friday, October 2. On Thursday, October 8, audiences can enjoy an Opera Performance, and one day later, Versatile Music will return. For those who prefer different rhythms, Rock and Roll will take the stage on Thursday, October 15, while Versatile Music will once again perform on Friday, October 16. All of these performances will begin at 3:30 p.m.

The second half of the month will offer an even broader journey through different genres and artistic expressions. On Wednesday, October 21, at 3:30 p.m., Tlatoani Dance will be presented. On Thursday, October 22, visitors can enjoy Tributes, followed by Romantic Ballads on Friday, October 23, both at the same time. The Orquesta Sinfónica de Alientos de la Alcaldía Cuauhtémoc will perform on Monday, October 26, at 5:00 p.m., while the SEDENA Concert, scheduled for Friday, October 30, at 5:00 p.m., will close October's musical lineup.

Art will also continue to play an important role with "Chocolate en Movimiento" (Chocolate in Motion), an exhibition presented by MUCHO – Museum of Chocolate, which will be open to the public through October 8. Additional activities will invite visitors to learn, create, and challenge their skills. A Screen Printing Workshop will take place on Thursdays, October 8 and 22, at 10:00 a.m.; chess tournaments and classes will be held on Fridays, October 23 and 30, at the same time; and on Wednesday, October 28, at 5:00 p.m., a second Brain Gym session will be offered.

The next edition of #ConciertoEnMovimiento (#ConcertInMotion) will also take place. This initiative brings live music to Suburban Train passengers and has previously featured artists such as Alex Lora, DLD, La Gusana Ciega, Panteón Rococó, and Juan Solo, among others. Additional details will be shared soon through the official Tren Suburbano social media channels.

With activities designed for a wide range of interests, October's agenda reinforces the Tren Suburbano Cultural Center as a space where everyday travel through Buenavista can also become an opportunity to experience music, art, and other forms of cultural expression.

All activities are free of charge and subject to change without prior notice. For more information about the monthly schedule, the public is invited to visit the official Tren Suburbano social media channels, the Mi Suburbano app, or the website: www.fsuburbanos.com
